Responsibility for the Child at Destination

The responsibility to ensure the child is received at the destination address solely rests with the legal representative of the user and the person who has reserved the transportation.

The legal representative is aware and accepts that:

- The MRC Brome-Missisquoi, through its transportation service, will be responsible for the user during the entire transportation journey, from the departure address to the destination address.
- The driver's responsibility is:
 - To provide safe transportation of passengers to their destination, in accordance with the law.
 - Not to accept any direct changes to the drop-off or pick-up address requested by the user or any other person.
- The transportation service or the MRC Brome-Missisquoi cannot be held responsible for the absence of the user at the departure address or, if applicable, the person intended to pick up the child at the destination address.
- In case of an emergency situation, the driver will follow the intervention protocol established by the transportation service of the MRC Brome-Missisquoi.
- The MRC Brome-Missisquoi does not provide school transportation, and the services cannot be used for this purpose.
- The MRC Brome-Missisquoi may periodically update this document and require it to be completed again.

Under these conditions, the legal representative declares:

- To waive all claims, personally or on behalf of the user, of any kind against the MRC Brome-Missisquoi, including in the event of accidents, theft, damage, or loss of the user's personal belongings or others, occurring during the user's transportation. It is the responsibility of the legal representative to take out any necessary additional insurance, if applicable.
- To acknowledge the risks, including accidents, injuries, or death, related to transportation and accept them.
- To have read the policy of collective transportation of the MRC Brome-Missisquoi available on its website and as an annex to Bylaw 02-0122 concerning the organization of collective and adapted transportation of persons in the MRC Brome-Missisquoi and may be periodically updated, to accept it, and undertake to pay the administrative fees related to any non-compliance.
- That they have the necessary authorizations to provide the required authorizations herein.
- To have been informed of the obligation to promptly inform the MRC Brome-Missisquoi of any changes to the information in this form and to fill out a new form if necessary.
- That all information completed on the form and all statements are true. To this end, the legal representative authorizes the transportation service of the MRC Brome-Missisquoi to consult with any other relevant parties regarding this application.

The Transportation Service of the MRC Brome-Missisquoi reserves the right to cease any future service provision without notice if necessary.

This document is valid until a request is made by the legal representative to terminate the requested transportation.

This document, read and approved, enters into effect on the date of the legal representative's signature.
